MYSTERY IN THE CASE

MRS. FLORENCE MAYBRICK IS REMOVED FROM THE PRISON AT AYLESBURY, ENG.

REPORT OF PARDON DENIED

CONFLICTING RUMORS REGARD GARDING WHEREABOUTS OF AMERICAN WOMAN.

London, Feb. 1.—In spite of the mystery with which officials shroud the action in connection with the reported release of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, who is serving a life sentence for poisoning her husband, it can be definitely said that she has been removed from Aylesbury prison. At the United States embassy it was most emphatically declared that she had not been pardoned and that she was still a prisoner. Where she had been taken remains a mystery, but reports from Aylesbury are to the effect that she has been removed to some institution in Cornwall. The home office and the governor of Aylesbury prison refuse to make any kind of a statement on the subject.

If the ordinary course had been followed, Mrs. Maybrick would have been taken to Holloway if her immediate release were contemplated, but she is not there and has probably been removed where she can recuperate prior to her release. Or, possibly, she has been conveyed to one of the government homes of detention or to an asylum.

The Daily Mail says that Mrs. Maybrick is now in Liverpool, and that the following conditions attach to her release from prison: That she will not appear on the public stage or write a book of her experiences and shall in no way endeavor to attract public attention to herself.

The newspapers that announced Mrs. Maybrick's removal from Aylesbury prison express the belief that she will be released within two or three months.

An unconfirmed report is current that Mrs. Maybrick and her mother sailed last Wednesday on the Oceanic for New York under assumed names.

FOR PRESS OF THE COUNTRY.

Ample Provision Will Be Made at Republican Convention.

Salt Lake City, Feb. 1.—Secretary Perry S. Heath of the Republican national committee has received a great many applications from the newspaper publishers and editors of the country for reservation upon the press platform of the Republican national convention, which will convene in Chicago, June 21, and states in answer that all such applications will be laid before the committee at the earliest possible moment and will receive prompt attention. The committee in charge of the press and other facilities will meet in Chicago within a few days and all newspaper applications will receive replies soon thereafter. Nothing has yet been done in the direction of providing press and other facilities and at this time no response can be given to any application. It is the intention, Mr. Heath says, to provide amply for the entire press of the country.

DISCUSS PHILIPPINE AFFAIRS.

President Roosevelt, Secretary Root and Governor Taft Confer.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Secretary and Mrs. Root spent their last evening of official life in Washington in dining with the president and Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House.

Later in the evening Governor Taft, who today will take the office to be vacated by Secretary Root, called at the White House and with the president and the secretary discussed for some time matters relating to the Philippines.

Secretary Moody also spent some time at the White House with the president.

Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul called by appointment at the White House and saw the president. He also saw Governor Taft, although the meeting of the two had not been pre-arranged.

WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Sets Fire to Her Clothing When Told Her Baby Was Dying.

Cincinnati, Feb. 1.—When Mrs. Matilda Garrity was told Sunday that her babe was dying, she emptied a can of coal oil on her own clothing and set it on fire. Both died last night.

Ranchman Kills Three Officers.

Jomacatepec, Mexico, Feb. 1.—Pedro Alcazar, a wealthy ranchman living near this city, killed a commandant of police and two other officers who were attempting to arrest him in connection with a dispute over a boundary fence of Alcazar's ranch. Alcazar escaped and is still at large.

TWO PERSONS KILLED.

Six Others Seriously Injured by Natural Gas Explosion.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 1.—An explosion of natural gas in the cellar of the home of Henry Magel in West Liberty Sunday was the cause of the deaths of two persons and the severe injury of six others.

The dead are: Henry Magel, aged fifty-five years; Charles Magel, aged twenty.

Mrs. Henry Magel fell through to the cellar and was seriously injured. Her children, William, aged thirteen, and Annie, fifteen, and Otto, eighteen, and Charles Almsay, a son-in-law, and his wife, were all badly bruised and cut.

The explosion is supposed to have been caused by a leak from the gas main into the cellar and when Mr. Magel went to the cellar for a bucket of coal carrying a lighted candle a terrific explosion followed, completely wrecking the house.

Neighbors who gathered were unable to reach Magel, who was pinned under the debris and was obliged to stand by and see him burn to death.

RACE WAR IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Two White Men Wounded and One Negro Drowned.

Webster, Pa., Feb. 1.—One of a party of ten negroes Saturday night fired upon a party of white men who had been making fun of them. Two of the white men were wounded, one of them fatally. In trying to get away from the infuriated companions of the injured men, one of the negroes was drowned in the Monongahela river.

The wounded are Robert Wilson and Robert Booth. The name of the negro who was drowned is not known. For some time a bitter feeling has existed here among a number of white men headed by Wilson and the negroes of the vicinity.

TOWN WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

Only Two Dwellings at Hollandale, Miss., Escape the Flames.

Greenville, Miss., Feb. 1.—Fire at Hollandale Saturday destroyed every building in the town, except two dwellings and caused a loss estimated at $100,000 to $200,000.

The fire started in a negro restaurant situated in a row of frame buildings and a high wind fanned the flames to such proportions that the volunteer fire fighters could not stay its progress.

PICKPOCKETS AS SOLDIERS.

Mexico Places Them in the Army Instead of in Prison.

Mexico City, Feb. 1.—A number of men convicted as pickpockets were Sunday placed in the regular army to serve out the term of their sentences. This is the first application of the law recently passed which allows compulsory service in the army instead of imprisonment for men convicted of picking pockets.

St. Louis Woman Frozen to Death.

St. Louis, Feb. 1.—Miss Emma von Haaran, fifty years old, who had lived as a recluse for more than fifteen years in her large house at 426 South Fifteenth street, near the heart of the city, was found dead in a room there Sunday night. She had apparently frozen to death two weeks ago.

WAR IS NOW CERTAIN

COLOMBIAN GOVERNMENT HELPS TO PREVENT THE INVASION OF PANAMA.

REYES DELAYS DEPARTURE

CLAIMED THAT NEGOTIATIONS WITH STATE DEPARTMENT NOT YET BROKEN.

New York, Feb. 1.—This cable dispatch was received here from an official source in Bogota, according to the Sun:

"Government is helpless in effort to prevent war. In less than a month from now 10,000 men will be on the Isthmus."

This information, confirming rumors cabled from Panama that Colombia intends organizing and sending an expedition against Panama, comes as a surprise, in view of the changed attitude of the Colombians, who had apparently accepted the inevitable and depended on General Rafael Reyes, their special envoy to Washington, to save what he could from the wreck, says the Sun.

General Reyes was to have sailed Saturday for Barranquilla on the steamer Valencia, but for the second time he deferred his departure. General Pedro Nelisphina and De Lucas Caballero, colleagues of General Reyes on the Colombian commission, sailed on the Valencia.

The story continues, on seemingly good authority it is stated, that General Reyes remains here because his negotiations with the state department at Washington have not been completely broken off and that he has a tentative promise from this government that Colombia will be taken care of with a pecuniary loan for her injured feelings.

General Rafael Reyes said regarding the report that Colombia was about to send an army to Panama:

"If Colombia is thinking of going to war I know nothing about it and have nothing to do with it."

General Reyes expects to leave for home in a few days. He said that his negotiations with the state department at Washington were ended unless the United States wished to reopen them.

CONFESSES TO MURDER.

Joseph Miller Surrenders and Admits Killing Mrs. J. T. Seville.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 1.—Joseph Miller, alias Meunier, Sunday walked into police headquarters and gave himself up, admitting that he stabbed Mrs. James T. Seville to death Saturday. Miller told the police that the only reason he had for killing Mrs. Seville, whom he loved, was that he believed that she and her husband had conspired a plot to cheat him out of his money. He said that before stabbing Mrs. Seville to death he had decided to poison her and bought a half pint of sherry in which he placed twenty grains of arsenic. He offered her this drink, but Mrs. Seville refused to take it.

Miller expresses no regret for his horrible deed. Miller, whose right name is Meunier, formerly lived in Manchester, N. H., where he deserted his wife. He was considered eccentric but had no police record.

FIVE MEN INSTANTLY KILLED.

Explosion Rips Mine Cage Apart and Bodies Fall Down the Shaft.

Mahanoy City, Pa., Feb. 1.—Five men were instantly killed late Saturday night in the Maple Hill colliery of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. The victims, who were rock men, are: Morgan Jones, John Mackey, Joseph Junis, Adam Savage and John Huderick.

The men were killed by an explosion of powder in a steel cage in which they were being hoisted. The explosion ripped the cage apart and the mangled forms of the rock men fell 300 feet to the bottom of the shaft. The head of one of the men was blown off. The Maple Hill is one of the collieries visited by the anthracite strike commission, and it is one of the best equipped mines in the hard coal regions.

PASSENGER TRAIN DERAILED.

Nobody Badly Hurt in Accident Attributed to Wreckers.

Princeton, Ind., Feb. 1.—A passenger train on the Southern railway was derailed east of here Sunday. The train was running at the rate of twenty miles an hour when it left the tracks. The baggage car and day coach were thrown from their trucks and rolled down the embankment. There were seventy-five passengers on the train, but all escaped with slight injuries.

An examination revealed that a number of spikes and bolts had been removed from the rails and the detectives claim to have a clue to the guilty persons.

Day Given Over to Funerals.

Pittsburg, Feb. 1.—Work was practically suspended Sunday at the Harwick mine, the scene of last week's explosion, and the day was given up to memorial services and funerals. A total of 152 bodies have now been recovered and all identified.

STEAMSHIPS IN COLLISION.

Wilson Liner Colorado Sinks the Boston City.

New York, Feb. 1.—The Wilson line steamship Colorado, Captain Cox, from Hull, while proceeding up the lower bay Sunday and while rounding the Southwest spit, came in collision with the outward bound Bristol City line steamer Boston City, Captain Carey, from New York for Bristol and Swansea. The Boston City had a large hole torn in her port side forward of the bridge and her bridge was smashed. She began to fill rapidly and was run into shallow water to prevent her sinking. The Boston City floated with the rising tide, only to drift to the west side of Southwest spit and ground again. The Colorado, after the accident, stood by and took off some of the crew of the Boston City and then proceeded to her dock. The Colorado suffered but slight damage. One or more of her forward plates were started, which let some water into her fore hold.

When the accident occurred both ships were running slowly and the weather was clear.

MURDERER STILL AT LARGE.

Police of Bedford, Ind., Unable to Locate Slayer of Miss Schafer.

Bedford, Ind., Feb. 1.—Ten days have gone by since the murder of Miss Sarah Schafer, the pretty teacher of Latin in the high school here. Local officials, six detectives and twenty newspaper men have been constantly at work since the morning following the murder when the body was discovered, but the murderer has not been found.

Two persons have been arrested on suspicion and released with their innocence clearly established and the detectives have turned their attention almost exclusively to the higher circles in Bedford, where two persons are under suspicion.

So strong do the detectives think the evidence is against one of these men that they have made the remark openly that his arrest would follow shortly.

On the other hand the city authorities insist that he will not be arrested. One-half of Bedford thinks him guilty, another half declares him innocent.

DISCUSS PHILIPPINE AFFAIRS.

President Roosevelt, Secretary Root and Governor Taft Confer.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Secretary and Mrs. Root spent their last evening of official life in Washington in dining with the president and Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House.

Later in the evening Governor Taft, who today will take the office to be vacated by Secretary Root, called at the White House and with the president and the secretary discussed for some time matters relating to the Philippines.

Secretary Moody also spent some time at the White House with the president.

Archbishop John Ireland of St. Paul called by appointment at the White House and saw the president. He also saw Governor Taft, although the meeting of the two had not been pre-arranged.

WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Sets Fire to Her Clothing When Told Her Baby Was Dying.

Cincinnati, Feb. 1.—When Mrs. Matilda Garrity was told Sunday that her babe was dying, she emptied a can of coal oil on her own clothing and set it on fire. Both died last night.

Ranchman Kills Three Officers.

Jomacatepec, Mexico, Feb. 1.—Pedro Alcazar, a wealthy ranchman living near this city, killed a commandant of police and two other officers who were attempting to arrest him in connection with a dispute over a boundary fence of Alcazar's ranch. Alcazar escaped and is still at large.

TWO PERSONS KILLED.

Six Others Seriously Injured by Natural Gas Explosion.

Pittsburg, Feb. 1.—An explosion of natural gas in the cellar of the home of Henry Magel in West Liberty Sunday was the cause of the deaths of two persons and the severe injury of six others.

The dead are: Henry Magel, aged fifty-five years; Charles Magel, aged twenty.

Mrs. Henry Magel fell through to the cellar and was seriously injured. Her children, William, aged thirteen, and Annie, fifteen, and Otto, eighteen, and Charles Almsay, a son-in-law, and his wife, were all badly bruised and cut.

The explosion is supposed to have been caused by a leak from the gas main into the cellar and when Mr. Magel went to the cellar for a bucket of coal carrying a lighted candle a terrific explosion followed, completely wrecking the house.

Neighbors who gathered were unable to reach Magel, who was pinned under the debris and were obliged to stand by and see him burn to death.

RACE WAR IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Two White Men Wounded and One Negro Drowned.

Webster, Pa., Feb. 1.—One of a party of ten negroes Saturday night fired upon a party of white men who had been making fun of them. Two of the white men were wounded, one of them fatally. In trying to get away from the infuriated companions of the injured men, one of the negroes was drowned in the Monongahela river. The wounded are Robert Wilson and Robert Booth. The name of the negro who was drowned is not known. For some time a bitter feeling has existed here among a number of white men headed by Wilson and the negroes of the vicinity.

TOWN WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

Only Two Dwellings at Hollandale, Miss., Escape the Flames.

Greenville, Miss., Feb. 1.—Fire at Hollandale Saturday destroyed every building in the town, except two dwellings and caused a loss estimated at $100,000 to $200,000.

The fire started in a negro restaurant situated in a row of frame buildings and a high wind fanned the flames to such proportions that the volunteer fire fighters could not stay its progress.

PICKPOCKETS AS SOLDIERS.

Mexico Places Them in the Army Instead of in Prison.

Mexico City, Feb. 1.—A number of men convicted as pickpockets were Sunday placed in the regular army to serve out the term of their sentences. This is the first application of the law recently passed which allows compulsory service in the army instead of imprisonment for men convicted of picking pockets.

St. Louis Woman Frozen to Death.

St. Louis, Feb. 1.—Miss Emma von Haas, fifty years old, who had lived as a recluse for more than fifteen years in her large house at 426 South Fifteenth street, near the heart of the city, was found dead in a room there Sunday night. She had apparently frozen to death two weeks ago.

WAR IS NOW CERTAIN

COLOMBIAN GOVERNMENT HELPLESS TO PREVENT THE INVASION OF PANAMA.

REYES DELAYS DEPARTURE

CLAIMED THAT NEGOTIATIONS WITH STATE DEPARTMENT NOT YET BROKEN.

New York, Feb. 1.—This cable dispatch was received here from an official source in Bogota according to the Sun:

"Government is helpless in effort to prevent war. In less than a month from now 10,000 men will be on the Isthmus."

This information, confirming rumors cabled from Panama that Colombia intends organizing and sending an expedition against Panama, comes as a surprise, in view of the changed attitude of the Colombians, who had apparently accepted the inevitable and depended on General Raphael Reyes, their special envoy to Washington, to save what he could from the wreck, says the Sun.

General Reyes was to have sailed Saturday for Barranquilla on the steamer Valencia, but for the second time he deferred his departure. General Pedro Nelisphina and De Lucas Caballero, colleagues of General Reyes on the Colombian commission, sailed on the Valencia.

The story continues, on seemingly good authority it is stated, that General Reyes remains here because his negotiations with the state department at Washington have not been completely broken off and that he has a tentative promise from this government that Colombia will be taken care of with a pecuniary balm for her injured feelings.

General Rafael Reyes said regarding the report that Colombia was about to send an army to Panama:

"If Colombia is thinking of going to war I know nothing about it and have nothing to do with it."

General Reyes expects to leave for home in a few days. He said that his negotiations with the state department at Washington were ended unless the United States wished to reopen them.

CONFESSES TO MURDER.

Joseph Miller Surrenders and Admits Killing Mrs. J. T. Seville.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 1.—Joseph Miller, alias Munnier, Sunday walked into police headquarters and gave himself up, admitting that he stabbed Mrs. James T. Seville to death Saturday. Miller told the police that the only reason he had for killing Mrs. Seville, whom he loved, was that he believed that she and her husband had concocted a plot to cheat him out of his money. He said that before stabbing Mrs. Seville to death he had decided to poison her and bought a half pint of sherry in which he placed twenty grains of arsenic. He offered her this drink, but Mrs. Seville refused to take it.

Miller expresses no regret for his horrible deed. Miller, whose right name is Munnier, formerly lived in Manchester, N. H., where he deserted his wife. He was considered eccentric but had no police record.

FIVE MEN INSTANTLY KILLED.

Explosion Rips Mine Cage Apart and Bodies Fall Down the Shaft.

Mahanoy City, Pa., Feb. 1.—Five men were instantly killed late Saturday night in the Maple Hill colliery of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. The victims, who were rock men, are: Morgan Jones, John Mackey, Joseph Junis, Adam Savage and John Huderick.

The men were killed by an explosion of powder in a steel cage in which they were being hoisted. The explosion ripped the cage apart and the mangled forms of the rock men fell 200 feet to the bottom of the shaft. The head of one of the men was blown off. The Maple Hill is one of the collieries visited by the anthracite strike commission, and it is one of the best equipped mines in the hard coal regions.

PASSENGER TRAIN DERAILED.

Nobody Badly Hurt in Accident Attributed to Wreckers.

Princeton, Ind., Feb. 1.—A passenger train on the Southern railway was derailed east of here Sunday. The train was running at the rate of twenty miles an hour when it left the tracks. The baggage car and day coach were thrown from their trucks and rolled down the embankment. There were seventy-five passengers on the train, but all escaped with slight injuries.

An examination revealed that a number of spikes and bolts had been removed from the rails and the detectives claim to have a clue to the guilty persons.

Day Given Over to Funerals.

Pittsburg, Feb. 1.—Work was practically suspended Sunday at the Harwick mine, the scene of last week's explosion, and the day was given up to memorial services and funerals. A total of 152 bodies have now been recovered and all identified.

STEAMSHIPS IN COLLISION.

Wilson Liner Colorado Sinks the Boston City.

New York, Feb. 1.—The Wilson line steamship Colorado, Captain Cox, from Hull, while proceeding up the lower bay Sunday and while rounding the Southwest spit, came in collision with the outward bound Bristol City line steamer Boston City. Captain Carey, from New York for Bristol and Swansea. The Boston City had a large hole torn in her port side forward of the bridge and her bridge was smashed. She began to fill rapidly and was run into shallow water to prevent her sinking. The Boston City drifted to the west side of Southwest spit and ground again. The Colorado, after the accident stood by and took off some of the crew of the Boston City and then proceeded to her dock. The Colorado suffered but slight damage. One or more of her forward plates were started, which let some water into her fore hold.

When the accident occurred both ships were running slowly and the weather was clear.

MURDERER STILL AT LARGE.

Police of Bedford, Ind., Unable to Locate Slayer of Miss Schafer.

Bedford, Ind., Feb. 1.—Ten days have gone by since the murder of Miss Sarah Schafer, the pretty teacher of Latin in the high school here. Local officials, six detectives and twenty newspaper men have been constantly at work since the morning following the murder when the body was discovered, but the murderer has not been found.

Two persons have been arrested on suspicion and released with their innocence clearly established and the detectives have turned their attention almost exclusively to the higher circles in Bedford, where two persons are under suspicion.

So strong do the detectives think the evidence is against one of these men that they have made the remark openly that his arrest would follow shortly.

On the other hand the city authorities insist that he will not be arrested. One-half of Bedford thinks him guilty, another half declares him innocent.

WHY WINE FIRST TO HOST.

In America a Mere Formality, but in Italy a Real Necessity.

The wine was opened dextrously by the waiter, who before serving the guests poured a few drops into the host's glass.

"Why did this waiter give you a little wine before helping the rest of us?" asked a man of curious mind.

"Oh," said the host, "that's always done."

"I know it's always done. That does not answer my question, though. Here, waiter," the man persisted, "you tell me why when you open a bottle of wine you pour a few drops into the host's glass before serving the guests."

The waiter smiled and answered: "It's a matter of form, sir; an old custom, a politeness. Its origin lies in the fact that after the removal of the cork there might be left in the neck of the bottle a little dust or a few specks of cork. The first drops poured out would in that event contain the dust or the cork, and thus the guest were he served first might get this refuse; hence the host is given the first drops.

"As a matter of fact, if you know how to open wine you have no difficulty in keeping the bottle's neck clean. The custom, therefore, is a formality in America. In Italy, though, it is a real necessity, for over there they pour a little oil in the necks of their bottles of native wine before corking on the ground that this makes the wine air tight. No doubt it does, but it also in some cases gives to the first glass from the bottle a decidedly oily flavor. Therefore the first glass the host gallantly takes."—Philadelphia Record.

Korean Men's Hats.

The quaintest feature of the picturesque costumes of the Korean men is their hats. They are mousetrap-like arrangements made from the hair of the wearer's ancestors. This priceless possession is handed down from father to eldest son, who reaches the goal of his ambition at the moment when the family hat is placed upon his head. Another grotesque form of Korean headgear is the mourning hat that is worn in rural districts by the eldest son for three years after the death of either of his parents. This conical shaped affair of rushes or rice straw is as large as a bushel basket and extends to the shoulders.

Gin in England in the Old Days.

Before intoxicating liquor was made dear by taxes and its sale was regulated by licenses the use of it in England was astonishingly common. Not only were there in London 6,000 or 7,000 regular dramshops, but cheap gin was given by masters to their work people instead of wages, sold by barbers and tobaccoists, hawked about the streets on barrows by men and women, openly exposed for sale on every market stall, forced on the maidservants and other purchasers at the chandler's shop, until, as one contemporary writer puts it, "one-half of the town seems set up to furnish poison to the other half."

In the Nursery.

"Mamma, why do landladies object to children?"
Mother—"I'm sure I don't know. But go and see what baby is crying about and tell Johnny to stop throwing things at people in the street and make George and Kate cease fighting and tell Dick if he doesn't stop blowing that tin trumpet I'll take it away from him.—Tit-Bits.

Why They Spoke.

"We had known each other slightly," said Miss Evvy Waite, "but never to speak to until one day while out skating I fell down quite near him, and—"
"Ah, yes!" replied Miss Peppery. "That broke the ice, of course."—Philadelphia Press.

GOOD WORD FOR COMPANY F

Major Eva of Duluth Inspected Company Yesterday and Was Much Pleased

THERE WAS A GOOD ATTENDANCE

There Were Forty-one Men in Line for Inspection and Ten Were Excused.

Yesterday afternoon Major Eva, of Duluth, was in Brainerd to inspect Company F. A fine showing was made by the boys and the officer returned to his home very much pleased with the state of affairs in militia lines in this city.

In anticipation of the coming of the major there were forty-one men in line and ten had been excused for good cause, and they made an excellent showing. The company was put through the severest kind of drill and in every instance they showed careful attention to the detail of manual drill.

After it was all over Major Eva made a few remarks complimenting the members of the company and the officers on the showing, stating that the company now ranked well with any company in the regiment.

Major Eva was accompanied by his wife to Brainerd and they returned to Duluth on the afternoon train.

Which is the Larger Income?

Here is an interesting problem in mathematics. Two clerks are engaged, one at a salary which begins at the rate of $100 a year, with a yearly rise of $20, and the other at a salary commencing at the same rate, but with a half yearly rise of $5. In each case payments are made half yearly. Which of them has the larger income?

Who is not tempted to say the former?

Yet the latter is the correct answer, for in the first year the first clerk receives $100, but the second clerk receives $50 and $55, which amounts to $105 in the year. The first clerk in the second year gets, to be sure, $120, but No. 2 gets $60 for the first half year and $65 for the second, or $125 in all.

Properly Diagnosed.

The first drops poured out would in that event contain the dust or the cork, and thus the guest were he served first might get this refuse; hence the host is given the first drops.

"As a matter of fact, if you know how to open wine you have no difficulty in keeping the bottle's neck clean. The custom, therefore, is a formality in America. In Italy, though, it is a real necessity, for over there they pour a little oil in the necks of their bottles of native wine before corking on the ground that this makes the wine air tight. No doubt it does, but it also in some cases gives to the first glass from the bottle a decidedly oily flavor. Therefore the first glass the host gallantly takes."—Philadelphia Record.

Korean Men's Hats.

The quaintest feature of the picturesque costumes of the Korean men is their hats. They are mousetrap-like arrangements made from the hair of the wearer's ancestors. This priceless possession is handed down from father to eldest son, who reaches the goal of his ambition at the moment when the family hat is placed upon his head. Another grotesque form of Korean headgear is the mourning hat that is worn in rural districts by the eldest son for three years after the death of either of his parents. This conical shaped affair of rushes or rice straw is as large as a bushel basket and extends to the shoulders.

Gin in England in the Old Days.

Before intoxicating liquor was made dear by taxes and its sale was regulated by licenses the use of it in England was astonishingly common. Not only were there in London 6,000 or 7,000 regular dramshops, but cheap gin was given by masters to their work people instead of wages, sold by barbers and tobacconists, hawked about the streets on barrows by men and women, openly exposed for sale on every market stall, forced on the maidservants and other purchasers at the chandler's shop, until, as one contemporary writer puts it, "one-half of the town seems set up to furnish poison to the other half."

In the Nursery.

"Mamma, why do landladies object to children?"
Mother—I'm sure I don't know. But go and see what baby is crying about and tell Johnny to stop throwing things at people in the street and make George and Kate cease fighting and tell Dick if he doesn't stop blowing that tin trumpet I'll take it away from him.—Tit-Bits.

Why They Spoke.

"We had known each other slightly," said Miss Evvy Waite, "but never to speak to until one day while out skating I fell down quite near him, and"—
"Ah, yes!" replied Miss Peppery. "That broke the ice, of course."—Philadelphia Press.

GOOD WORD FOR COMPANY F

THERE WAS A GOOD ATTENDANCE

There Were Forty-one Men in Line for Inspection and Ten Were Excused.

Yesterday afternoon Major Eva, of Duluth, was in Brainerd to inspect Company F. A fine showing was made by the boys and the officer returned to his home very much pleased with the state of affairs in militia lines in this city.

In anticipation of the coming of the major there were forty-one men in line and ten had been excused for good cause, and they made an excellent showing. The company was put through the severest kind of drill and in every instance they showed careful attention to the detail of manual drill.

After it was all over Major Eva made a few remarks complimenting the members of the company and the officers on the showing, stating that the company now ranked well with any company in the regiment.

Major Eva was accompanied by his wife to Brainerd and they returned to Duluth on the afternoon train.

Which Is the Larger Income?

Here is an interesting problem in mathematics: Two clerks are engaged, one at a salary which begins at the rate of $100 a year, with a yearly rise of $20, and the other at a salary commencing at the same rate, but with a half yearly rise of $5. In each case payments are made half yearly. Which of them has the larger income?

Who is not tempted to say the former?

Yet the latter is the correct answer, for in the first year the first clerk receives $100, but the second clerk receives $50 and $55, which amounts to $105 in the year. The first clerk in the second year gets, to be sure, $120, but No. 2 gets $60 for the first half year and $65 for the second, or $125 in all.

Properly Diagnosed.

Lushman—I'm troubled with headaches in the morning. It may be on account of my eyes. Perhaps I need stronger glasses.

Dr. Shrupe—No; I think you merely need weaker glasses and fewer at night.—Exchange.

WHY WINE FIRST TO HOST.

In America a Mere Formality, but in Italy a Real Necessity.

The wine was opened dextrously by the waiter, who before serving the guests poured a few drops into the host's glass.

"Why did this waiter give you a little wine before helping the rest of us?" asked a man of curious mind.

"Oh," said the host, "that's always done."

"I know it's always done. That does not answer my question, though. Here, waiter," the man persisted, "you tell me why, when you open a bottle of wine you pour a few drops into the host's glass before serving the guests." The waiter smiled and answered: "It's a matter of form, sir; an old custom, a politeness. Its origin lies in the fact that after the removal of the cork there might be left in the neck of the bottle a little dust or a few specks of cork. The first drops poured out would in that event contain the dust or the cork, and thus the guest were he served first might get this refuse; hence the host is given the first drops."

"As a matter of fact, if you know how to open wine you have no difficulty in keeping the bottle's neck clean. The custom, therefore, is a formality in America. DESPERATE ROBBERY

Store of E. Niles at Merrifield is Touched Up For Nearly All the Coin in Sight

Two Desperados Enter Store Armed With Revolvers and Hold Mr. Niles Up.

It is seldom that such a bold robbery is brought to notice as the one which occurred on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at Merrifield, a small station north of this city on the Minnesota & International railway, when two desperadoes walked into the store of E. Niles, armed to the teeth, and succeeded in making a hasty cleaning up of all the cash, getting away with something like $350 in money, besides considerable merchandise of value.

Mr. Niles was in the city this morning and he stated that it was about the fiercest proposition he ever went up against, but it was done so politely that he did not realize what had happened until it was all over and he found he had been separated from his coin.

It was in the early evening and he and another gentleman, who lives at Merrifield, were talking together. Two men entered but they did not attract any particular attention as it was common for woodsmen to drop in at the store to make small purchases. The strangers took plenty of time to size things up and finally when they did get their bearings they started in on a crusade, and it did not take long for Mr. Niles to realize that there was a man behind the gun.

One of the men walked up to Mr. Niles, and quicker than one could say Jack Robbins, thrust a great big 44 into his face and told him to be good for a few moments. The other stranger went after the man who was talking with Mr. Niles and did him a stunt at a hurdle race, but he too was soon "under cover" and was willing to be good for a few minutes. Mr. Niles and his friend were huddled together and one of the men with two revolvers, one in each hand, held them at bay while the other gentleman took his time at picking up all the loose change there was laying around. The first place he went to was Mr. Niles' pocket and here he struck a bonanza and was richer by some $280.

Mr. Niles is postmaster and express agent at Merrifield and the burglars did not appear to be respecters of rank or emolument, but helped themselves to some of Uncle Sam's money and money belonging to the express company, and, in fact they were out for every dollar that there was there. They got it all, according to Mr. Niles' statement, about $350 or $400, besides some merchandise of value, including three revolvers.

The men left with as little ceremony as possible giving Mr. Niles and his companion a hunch that it might be better for them to stay within doors until they themselves made for the tall pine. Mr. Niles did finally come out and he and his friend started to trail the men, and it was found they came in the direction of Brainerd.

It is thought that the two men stayed in Brainerd Saturday night coming down the M. & I. track into East Brainerd and putting up at the East Hotel. Sheriff Erickson has been busy all day working on the case and as he has a pretty good description of the men who did the work he thinks he will be able to land them.

It appears that there has been a well planned crusade at the different towns up north, for on Friday evening two men, believed to be the same two that worked so successful at Merrifield, got away with quite a sum at the McKinnon saloon at Jenkins and an attempt was also made to rob the H. L. Bowen & Co.'s store, but they were scared away by young Carrol Curro. At the McKinnon saloon they broke open a couple of slot machines and it is said got a nice sum, besides breaking the machines to pieces.

MISS FLORENCE G. MERRITT

Is Brainerd's Minneapolis Journal Candidate for the World's Fair Free Trip --Unique Voting Contest.

The Minneapolis Journal has started an unique voting contest which will send forty persons from Minnesota to the St. Louis world's fair next June. Commencing today the Journal will print a coupon each day on its "want page." The coupons may be cut from the paper and sent to the "World's Fair Editor." Each coupon sent in represents one vote. Each cent paid on subscriptions also counts for one vote, thus the payment of 35 cents for one month's subscription entitles the subscriber to thirty-five votes, and so on.

The district in which Brainerd is included in this contest is No. 7 and takes in the following counties: Lake, St. Louis, Itasca, Carlton, Aitkin, Crow Wing, Cook, Pine, Kanabec, Mille Lacs, Benton, Isanti, Sherburne, Anoka, Chisago, Ramsey, Washington.

Miss Florence G. Merritt, of this city, is a candidate from this district and no more popular young lady could be named. She will undoubtedly receive a large number of votes from Brainerd and throughout the district.

IS WELL KNOWN HERE

John A. Berkey's Yacht Wrecked Off Key West a Few Days Ago--His Family Was Aboard at the Time.

The following regarding John A. Berkey, who is well known in this city, is taken from the St. Paul Pioneer Press: "John A. Berkey's yacht, Sylph, was wrecked off Key West Wednesday. In Mr. Berkey's party were Mrs. Berkey, their daughter, Miss Minnie Berkey, their son, John A. Berkey, Jr., and Miss McDonald. The yacht struck a reef and all the members of the party reached Key West safely after a night of hardships."

A PUBLIC OFFER

To All Persons in Brainerd Who Wish to Gain Flesh.

Some people do not need to gain flesh, but many must before health can be restored to a normal condition.

Are you thin? Do you require more flesh to be really well and strong? If you do we want you to commence a course of treatment now with Vinol, and we will agree that if after you have taken what we consider should be enough to restore your normal weight, and it has not succeeded, we will pay for all the medicine you have taken ourselves.

Now you will agree that we would ruin ourselves financially if we should make such a bold offer on an article of no merit, and we must know what we are talking about, or we would not guarantee the action of any medicine like that.

Dr. Z. F. Highsmith, of Sumpter, S. C., writes: "While taking Vinol I gained ten pounds; it restored appetite and strength."

Mr. E. O. Taft, of Boonton, N. J., writes: "Vinol increased my weight eight pounds in a short time, and made me well."

Mr. Henry Dickens, of Nashville, Tenn., writes: "Vinol increased my weight 17 pounds and cured me. I could not take cod liver oil, as it disagreed with me and upset my stomach."

C. G. Johnson, of Burlington, Vt., writes: "Vinol has restored my lost weight, and I have gained 20 pounds. Old-fashioned cod liver oil upset my stomach, but Vinol made me well."

So we might go on quoting from hundreds of such letters, and it is for this reason we know what Vinol will do. You see it acts first upon the stomach, creates an appetite for good, wholesome food, and strengthens and tones up the digestive organs so the food is properly assimilated. Rich, red blood is sent coursing through every vein; solid, firm flesh is created wherever it is needed, and emaciated figures, hollow cheeks and sunken eyes are soon a thing of the past. Vinol makes firm, healthy flesh, and the weak strong, because it strengthens every organ in the body to do its work.

Try it on our guarantee. H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists. 12

TWO INTERESTING NUPTIAL EVENTS

Mr. Herman Linneman and Miss Sarah Canan Will Be Married Next Wednesday

AT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

A Week from Wednesday Will Occur Marriage of Mr. Murphy and Miss Koop.

In the near future Brainerd will have two weddings of more than passing interest, and they will be very elaborate. Both will be at St. Francis' Catholic church. The first wedding will be that of Mr. Herman Linneman and Miss Sarah J. Canan, which will occur on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. D. W. Lynch officiating. Both weddings were announced yesterday.

Mr. Linneman is a member of the firm of Linneman Bros., clothiers, and is well known in the city. He has lived here for a long time and has a large acquaintance.

Miss Canan is also well known and popular in Brainerd, having lived here for years. She is a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Canan and a sister of Mrs. J. P. Early, Miss Marie Canan and Thos. Canan.

The other important wedding, which will be on a very elaborate scale, will be that of Mr. George Murphy and Miss Rose Koop which will occur at high noon on February 10 at St. Francis' Catholic church.

Mr. Murphy has been with D. M. Clark & Co. for years and is one of the most popular young business men of the city.

Miss Koop is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Koop, one of the oldest and most respected families in the city and is a charming young lady.

Four doctors said I would die of stomach troubles and appendicitis; three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea made me well and healthy.—Daniel Winston, Burlington, Vt. 35 cents. H. P. Dunn & Co.

SOLOMON MARKEE IS DEAD

Aged Resident of this City Passed Away at 6 O'clock this Morning at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall.

Solomon Markee, age 75 years, died this morning at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall in East Brainerd, after a lingering illness with pneumonia. The old gentleman is survived by two daughters and two brothers in Maine, and five sons and three daughters in Minnesota, three of the sons and two daughters being residents of this city.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday morning at 9:20 o'clock from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, 1517, Eighth street N. E. Brainerd.

What's Going On.

H. P. Dunn & Co., the popular druggists, are thinking of putting in a penny-in-the-slot weighing machine in their store, so that those who use Mi-o-na can tell how much they gain in weight every week.

There is talk of forming a "Get Fat Society" in Brainerd. It will be a jolly crowd, as fat people are always happy. This will undoubtedly increase the sale of Mi-o-na, the flesh forming food, for which H. P. Dunn & Co. are the local agent.

It is rather unusual for a physician to treat his patients on the no-cure, no-pay plan. However, this is the way H. P. Dunn & Co. are selling Mi-o-na, as they agree to refund the price of 50c a box if it does not cure all stomach troubles and increase weight.

THE DISPATCH is going to publish experiences of those who have used Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh forming food. Send in your letters and tell what this preparation has done for you.

The remarkable results from the use of our advertising columns has never been better shown than in H. P. Dunn & Co.'s large sale of Mi-o-na. This preparation has not been advertised for very many months, but it already is the best selling article in H. P. Dunn & Co.'s store.

OVERCOME BY SMOKE.

One Fireman Killed and Twenty-five Others Rendered Unconscious.

New York, Feb. 1.—One fireman was killed and twenty-five firemen were overcome by smoke in a fire in a storehouse of the American Manufacturing company in Brooklyn Sunday night. Nine of the men who were overcome were so seriously affected that they were taken to hospitals. One of them is expected to die. The property loss is $25,000.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

The Dispatch List of Eligibles in Matrimonial Lines will Prove a Very Valuable Guide.

F. XIPIOSURA ADDLEMAN, staunch and sturdy as the oak, stands out conspicuously as a glowing type of that American manhood classified as self made men, and he is said to his advantage as we give this dissertation covering his many virtues, that he has trained himself well along the lines of convivial and congenial ways so that he does not step upon this platform of action like one with the effrontery of a plebeian, but on the contrary sweeps onto the gridiron with colors flying and with the air of a Roman patrician. "F. X." as he is familiarly dubbed by his many friends, is attentive to business, being the representative of Edwards, Wood & Co. here, and he can always be found in his office during business hours, but the heavens only know where he is after hours, for he has been known to have as many as half a dozen girls on the string at one time, and Oh, say, the way he handles them, just like pulling a rein over a set of fours. It is said that he does not intend to be outdone by some of the other young aspirants of Brainerd and will get a real live automobile this spring. He says that even though the roads are sandy he will find some spots where he can "speed" up a bit. There is always a flutter among the fair ones when "F. X." appears on the scene, and in the good old summer time when "society is all agog," one can easily distinguish this young man from ten thousand. He is kind and loving, patient and forbearing, obedient and dutiful, lovable and sympathetic, and when he starts in to make love it is with the intensity one hears sung in the old "Bedouin Love Song." His particular delight in the summer is steamboating and his hobby is to stroll into the woodlands enroute, just to gather flowers. He knows all about the culinary department of a home already, having served once or twice in his life at the head of the table where he did the "carving." He will be a lovely thing to have around, girls, so pleasant and kind, and really we can't see how you can ever resist him. Call early and avoid the rush, and when you get there be sure and buy a ticket for the after concert.

M. H. Dike, representing the Jewell Nursery Co., of Lake City, Minn., is here and will make a thorough canvass of the city. Rooms at the National hotel. 1904

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"THE MAN FROM SWEDEN."

The Elmira Star says of Knute Erickson in "A Man From Sweden." "The audience that enjoyed a fine production of 'The Man From Sweden' by Knute Erickson and company in the opera house last evening must have been forcibly reminded of 'A Poor Relation' as played by Sol Smith Russell. It was a fine production and all that was promised for it and more too. The story of the comedy drama by Chas. Newton, is a pretty one and gives an opportunity for many fine situations. Erickson never loses his character of an honest, bright, brave, diffident Swede. His dialect is never overdrawn; it is just natural. He acts to perfection one of those noble characters who are lovable at all times, which however is not difficult, because if reports are true, he is that in private life. Much praise is due Master George, 'Little Jim,' Carl's friend. He is a very bright lad and a natural actor. The supporting company was creditable. The interest of the audience never flagged and by ripples of laughter and applause they continually let it be known. It was one of those productions in which the audience was in sympathy, and when the hero did a brave act, their approval could not only be felt but heard." "The Man From Sweden" is at the Brainerd theatre tonight. The prices are only 75c for the lower floor, 50c for balcony and 25c in gallery.

Here is one case of it:

R. D. Ransom, of Third Ave., East Brainerd, fireman for the Brainerd Lumber Co., says: "For as long as twelve or fourteen years I was a sufferer from kidney ailment. My back hurt me awfully. I could stoop but when I attempted to rise severe pain caught me in the loins. Often in bed I could not change my position and when morning came I had to be helped out of bed. The kidney secretions were of a very unhealthy color and were otherwise irregular. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and one box did me so much good that I took another. The treatment cured me." Sold for 50 cents, at H. P. Dunn & Co., and all druggists. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

DESPERATE

ROBBERY

Store of E. Niles at Merrifield is Touched Up For Nearly All the Coin in Sight

Two Desperados Enter Store Armed With Revolvers and Hold Mr. Niles Up.

It is seldom that such a bold robbery is brought to notice as the one which occurred on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at Merrifield, a small station north of this city on the Minnesota & International railway, when two desperate men walked into the store of E. Niles, armed to the teeth, and succeeded in making a hasty cleaning up of all the cash, getting away with something like $350 in money, besides considerable merchandise of value.

Mr. Niles was in the city this morning and he stated that it was about the fiercest proposition he ever went up against, but it was done so politely that he did not realize what had happened until it was all over and he found he had been separated from his coin.

It was in the early evening and he and another gentleman, who lives at Merrifield, were talking together. Two men entered but they did not attract any particular attention as it was common for woodsmen to drop in at the store to make small purchases. The strangers took plenty of time to size things up and finally when they did get their bearings they started in on a crusade, and it did not take long for Mr. Niles to realize that there was a man behind the gun.

One of the men walked up to Mr. Niles, and quicker than one could say Jack Robbins, thrust a great big 44 into his face and told him to be good for a few moments. The other stranger went after the man who was talking with Mr. Niles and did him a stunt at a hurdle race, but he too was soon "under cover" and was willing to be good for a few minutes. Mr. Niles and his friend were huddled together and one of the men with two revolvers, one in each hand, held them at bay while the other gentleman took his time at picking up all the loose change there was laying around. The first place he went to was Mr. Niles' pocket and here he struck a bonanza and was richer by some $280.

Mr. Niles is postmaster and express agent at Merrifield and the burglars did not appear to be respecters of rank or emolument, but helped themselves to some of Uncle Sam's money and money belonging to the express company, and, in fact they were out for every dollar that there was there. They got it all, according to Mr. Niles' statement, about $350 or $400, besides some merchandise of value, including three revolvers.

The men left with a little ceremony as possible giving Mr. Niles and his companion a hunch that it might be better for them to stay within doors until they themselves made for the tall pine. Mr. Niles did finally come out and he and his friend started to trail the men, and it was found they came in the direction of Brainerd.

It is thought that the two men stayed in Brainerd Saturday night coming down the M. & I. track into East Brainerd and putting up at the East Hotel. Sheriff Erickson has been busy all day working on the case and as he has a pretty good description of the men who did the work he thinks he will be able to land them.

It appears that there has been a well planned crusade at the different towns up north, for on Friday evening two men, believed to be the same two that worked so successful at Merrifield, got away with quite a sum at the McKinnon saloon at Jenkins and an attempt was also made to rob the H. L. Bowen & Co.'s store, but they were scared away by young Carrol Curro. At the McKinnon saloon they broke open a couple of slot machines and it is said got a nice sum, besides breaking the machines to pieces.

MISS FLORENCE G. MERRITT

Is Brainerd's Minneapolis Journal Candidate for the World's Fair Free Trip --Unique Voting Contest.

The Minneapolis Journal has started an unique voting contest which will send forty persons from Minnesota to the St. Louis world's fair next June. Commencing today the Journal will print a coupon each day on its "want page." The coupons may be cut from the paper and sent to the "World's Fair Editor." Each coupon sent in represents one vote. Each cent paid on Subscriptions also counts for one vote, thus the payment of 35 cents for one month's subscription entitles the subscriber to thirty-five votes, and so on.

The district in which Brainerd is included in this contest is No. 7 and takes in the following counties: Lake, St. Louis, Itasca, Carlton, Aitkin, Crow Wing, Cook, Pine, Kanabec, Mille Lacs, Benton, Isanti, Sherburne, Anoka, Chisago, Ramsey, Washington.

Miss Florence G. Merritt, of this city, is a candidate from this district and no more popular young lady could be named. She will undoubtedly receive a large number of votes from Brainerd and throughout the district.

John A. Berkey's Yacht Wrecked Off Key West a Few Days Ago--His Family Was Aboard at the Time.

The following regarding John A. Berkey, who is well known in this city, is taken from the St. Paul Pioneer Press: "John A. Berkey's yacht, Sylph, was wrecked off Key West Wednesday. In Mr. Berkey's party were Mrs. Berkey, their daughter, Miss Minnie Berkey, their son, John A. Berkey, Jr., and Miss McDonald. The yacht struck a reef and all the members of the party reached Key West safely after a night of hardships."

A PUBLIC OFFER

To All Persons in Brainerd Who Wish to Gain Flesh.

Some people do not need to gain flesh, but many must before health can be restored to a normal condition.

Are you thin? Do you require more flesh to be really well and strong? If you do we want you to commence a course of treatment now with Vinol, and we will agree that if after you have taken what we consider should be enough to restore your normal weight, and it has not succeeded, we will pay for all the medicine you have taken ourselves.

Now you will agree that we would ruin ourselves financially if we should make such a bold offer on an article of no merit, and we must know what we are talking about, or we would not guarantee the action of any medicine like that.

A prominent physician recently said: "The best way to gain good, solid, firm flesh is to take Vinol, for in it you get all the curative, flesh-making and strength-creating properties contained in the grand old remedy, cod liver oil, without the nauseating oil itself, and the weakest stomach can retain it. Thin people are usually weak and ailing, and Vinol is what they need."

Dr. Z. F. Highsmith, of Sumpter, S. C., writes: "While taking Vinol I gained ten pounds; it restored appetite and strength."

Mr. E. O. Taft, of Boonton, N. J., writes: "Vinol increased my weight eight pounds in a short time, and made me well."

Mr. Henry Dickens, of Nashville, Tenn., writes: "Vinol increased my weight 17 pounds and cured me. I could not take cod liver oil, as it disagreed with me and upset my stomach."

C. G. Johnson, of Burlington, Vt., writes: "Vinol has restored my lost weight, and I have gained 20 pounds. Old-fashioned cod liver oil upset my stomach, but Vinol made me well."

So we might go on quoting from hundreds of such letters, and it is for this reason we know what Vinol will do. You see it acts first upon the stomach, creates an appetite for good, wholesome food, and strengthens and tones up the digestive organs so the food is properly assimilated. Rich, red blood is sent coursing through every vein; solid, firm flesh is created wherever it is needed, and emaciated figures, hollow cheeks and sunken eyes are soon a thing of the past. Vinol makes firm, healthy flesh, and the weak strong, because it strengthens every organ in the body to do its work.

Try it on our guarantee. H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists. 12

SOLOMON MARKEE IS DEAD

Aged Resident of this City Passed Away at 6 O'clock this Morning at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall.

Solomon Markee, age 75 years, died this morning at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall in East Brainerd, after a lingering illness with pneumonia. The old gentleman is survived by two daughters and two brothers in Maine, and five sons and three daughters in Minnesota, three of the sons and two daughters being residents of this city.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday morning at 9:20 o'clock from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, 1517, Eighth street N. E. Brainerd.

The Dispatch is going to publish experiences of those who have used Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh forming food. Send in your letters and tell what this preparation has done for you.

The remarkable results from the use of our advertising columns has never been better shown than in H. P. Dunn & Co.'s large sale of Mi-o-na. This preparation has not been advertised for very many months, but it already is the best selling article in H. P. Dunn & Co.'s store.

DESPERATE ROBBERY
Store of E. Niles at Merrifield is Touched Up For Nearly All the Coin in Sight

Two Desperados Enter Store Armed With Revolvers and Hold Mr. Niles Up.

It is seldom that such a bold robbery is brought to notice as the one which occurred on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at Merrifield, a small station north of this city on the Minnesota & International railway, when two desperadoes entered the store of E. Niles, armed to the teeth, and succeeded in making a hasty cleaning up of all the cash, getting away with something like $350 in money, besides considerable merchandise of value.

Mr. Niles was in the city this morning and he stated that it was about the fiercest proposition he ever went up against, but it was done so politely that he did not realize what had happened until it was all over and he found he had been separated from his coin.

It was in the early evening and he and another gentleman, who lives at Merrifield, were talking together. Two men entered but they did not attract any particular attention as it was common for woodsmen to drop in at the store to make small purchases. The strangers took plenty of time to size things up and finally when they did get their bearings they started in on a crusade, and it did not take long for Mr. Niles to realize that there was a man behind the gun.

One of the men walked up to Mr. Niles, and quicker than one could say Jack Robbins, thrust a great big 44 into his face and told him to be good for a few moments. The other stranger went after the man who was talking with Mr. Niles and did him a stunt at a hurdle race, but he too was soon "under cover" and was willing to be good for a few minutes. Mr. Niles and his friend were huddled together and one of the men with two revolvers, one in each hand, held them at bay while the other gentleman took his time at picking up all the loose change there was laying around. The first place he went to was Mr. Niles' pocket and here he struck a bonanza and was richer by some $280. Mr. Niles is postmaster and express agent at Merrifield and the burglars did not appear to be respecters of rank or emolument, but helped themselves to some of Uncle Sam's money and money belonging to the express company, and, in fact they were out for every dollar that there was there. They got it all, according to Mr. Niles' statement, about $350 or $400, besides some merchandise of value, including three revolvers.

The men left with as little ceremony as possible giving Mr. Niles and his companion a hunch that it might be better for them to stay within doors until they themselves made for the tall pine. Mr. Niles did finally come out and he and his friend started to trail the men, and it was found they came in the direction of Brainerd.

It is thought that the two men stayed in Brainerd Saturday night coming down the M. & I. track into East Brainerd and putting up at the East Hotel. Sheriff Erickson has been busy all day working on the case and as he has a pretty good description of the men who did the work he thinks he will be able to land them.

It appears that there has been a well planned crusade at the different towns up north, for on Friday evening two men, believed to be the same two that worked so successful at Merrifield, got away with quite a sum at the McKinnon saloon at Jenkins and an attempt was also made to rob the H. L. Bowen & Co.'s store, but they were scared away by young Carrol Curro. At the McKinnon saloon they broke open a couple of slot machines and it is said got a nice sum, besides breaking the machines to pieces.

MISS FLORENCE G. MERRITT

Is Brainerd's Minneapolis Journal Candidate for the World's Fair Free Trip --Unique Voting Contest.

The Minneapolis Journal has started an unique voting contest which will send forty persons from Minnesota to the St. Louis world's fair next June. Commencing today the Journal will print a coupon each day on its "want page." The coupons may be cut from the paper and sent to the "World's Fair Editor." Each coupon sent in represents one vote. Each cent paid on Subscriptions also counts for one vote, thus the payment of 35 cents for one month's subscription entitles the subscriber to thirty-five votes, and so on.

The district in which Brainerd is included in this contest is No. 7 and takes in the following counties: Lake, St. Louis, Itasca, Carlton, Aitkin, Crow Wing, Cook, Pine, Kanabec, Mille Lacs, Benton, Isanti, Sherburne, Anoka, Chisago, Ramsey, Washington.

Miss Florence G. Merritt, of this city, is a candidate from this district and no more popular young lady could be named. She will undoubtedly receive a large number of votes from Brainerd and throughout the district.

John A. Berkey's Yacht Wrecked Off Key West a Few Days Ago--His Family Was Aboard at the Time.

The following regarding John A. Berkey, who is well known in this city, is taken from the St. Paul Pioneer Press: "John A. Berkey's yacht, Sylph, was wrecked off Key West Wednesday. In Mr. Berkey's party were Mrs. Berkey, their daughter, Miss Minnie Berkey, their son, John A. Berkey, Jr., and Miss McDonald. The yacht struck a reef and all the members of the party reached Key West safely after a night of hardships."

A PUBLIC OFFER

To All Persons in Brainerd Who Wish to Gain Flesh.

Some people do not need to gain flesh, but many must before health can be restored to a normal condition.

Are you thin? Do you require more flesh to be really well and strong? If you do we want you to commence a course of treatment now with Vinol, and we will agree that if after you have taken what we consider should be enough to restore your normal weight, and it has not succeeded, we will pay for all the medicine you have taken ourselves.

Now you will agree that we would ruin ourselves financially if we should make such a bold offer on an article of no merit, and we must know what we are talking about, or we would not guarantee the action of any medicine like that.

A prominent physician recently said, "The best way to gain good, solid, firm flesh is to take Vinol, for in it you get all the curative, flesh-making and strength creating properties contained in the grand old remedy, cod liver oil, without the nauseating oil itself, and the weakest stomach can retain it. Thin people are usually weak and ailing, and Vinol is what they need."

Dr. Z. F. Highsmith, of Sumpter, S. C., writes: "While taking Vinol I gained ten pounds; it restored appetite and strength."

Mr. E. O. Taft, of Boonton, N. J., writes: "Vinol increased my weight eight pounds in a short time, and made me well."

Mr. Henry Dickens, of Nashville, Tenn., writes: "Vinol increased my weight 17 pounds and cured me. I could not take cod liver oil, as it disagreed with me and upset my stomach."

C. G. Johnson, of Burlington, Vt., writes: "Vinol has restored my lost weight, and I have gained 20 pounds. Old-fashioned cod liver oil upset my stomach, but Vinol made me well."

So we might go on quoting from hundreds of such letters, and it is for this reason we know what Vinol will do. You see it acts first upon the stomach, creates an appetite for good, wholesome food, and strengthens and tones up the digestive organs so the food is properly assimilated. Rich, red blood is sent coursing through every vein; solid, firm flesh is created wherever it is needed, and emaciated figures, hollow cheeks and sunken eyes are soon a thing of the past. Vinol makes firm, healthy flesh, and the weak strong, because it strengthens every organ in the body to do its work.

Try it on our guarantee. H. P. Dunn & Co., druggists.

Dr. Reynolds, of the Electro-Medical Institute, Duluth, will be at the National hotel this week. He would like to meet all the invalids in Brainerd in consultation.

TWO INTERESTING NUPTIAL EVENTS

Mr. Herman Linneman and Miss Sarah Canan Will Be Married Next Wednesday

AT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

A Week from Wednesday Will Occur Marriage of Mr. Murphy and Miss Koop.

In the near future Brainerd will have two weddings of more than passing interest, and they will be very elaborate. Both will be at St. Francis' Catholic church. The first wedding will be that of Mr. Herman Linneman and Miss Sarah J. Canan, which will occur on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. D. W. Lynch officiating. Both weddings were announced yesterday.

Mr. Linneman is a member of the firm of Linneman Bros., clothiers, and is well known in the city. He has lived here for a long time and has a large acquaintance.

Miss Canan is also well known and popular in Brainerd, having lived here for years. She is a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Canan and a sister of Mrs. J. P. Early, Miss Marie Canan and Thos. Canan.

The other important wedding, which will be on a very elaborate scale will be that of Mr. George Murphy and Miss Rose Koop which will occur at high noon on February 10 at St. Francis' Catholic church.

Mr. Murphy has been with D. M. Clark & Co. for years and is one of the most popular young business men of the city.

Miss Koop is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Koop, one of the oldest and most respected families in the city and is a charming young lady.

Four doctors said I would die of stomach troubles and appendicitis; three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea made me well and healthy.—Daniel Winston, Burlington, Vt. 35 cents. H. P. Dunn & Co.

SOLOMON MARKEE IS DEAD

Aged Resident of this City Passed Away at 6 O'clock this Morning at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall.

Solomon Markee, age 75 years, died this morning at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall in East Brainerd, after a lingering illness with pneumonia. The old gentleman is survived by two daughters and two brothers in Maine, and five sons and three daughters in Minnesota, three of the sons and two daughters being residents of this city.

The funeral services will be held on Wednesday morning at 9:20 o'clock from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, 1517, Eighth street N. E. Brainerd.

What's Going On.

H. P. Dunn & Co., the popular druggists, are thinking of putting in a penny-in-the-slot weighing machine in their store, so that those who use Mi-o-na can tell how much they gain in weight every week.

There is talk of forming a "Get Fat Society" in Brainerd. It will be a jolly crowd, as fat people are always happy. This will undoubtedly increase the sale of Mi-o-na, the flesh forming food, for which H. P. Dunn & Co. are the local agent.

It is rather unusual for a physician to treat his patients on the no-cure, no-pay plan. However, this is the way H. P. Dunn & Co. are selling Mi-o-na, as they agree to refund the price of 50c a box if it does not cure all stomach troubles and increase weight.

THE DISPATCH is going to publish experiences of those who have used Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh forming food. Send in your letters and tell what this preparation has done for you.

The remarkable results from the use of our advertising columns has never been better shown than in H. P. Dunn & Co's large sale of Mi-o-na. This preparation has not been advertised for very many months, but it already is the best selling article in H. P. Dunn & Co's store.

OVERCOME BY SMOKE.

One Fireman Killed and Twenty-five Others Rendered Unconscious.

New York, Feb. 1.—One fireman was killed and twenty-five firemen were overcome by smoke in a fire in a storehouse of the American Manufacturing company in Brooklyn Sunday night. Nine of the men, who were overcome were so seriously affected that they were taken to hospitals. One of them is expected to die. The property loss is $25,000.

A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

The Dispatch List of Eligibles in Matrimonial Lines will Prove a Very Valuable Guide.

F. XIPOHURA ADDLEMAN, staunch and sturdy as the oak, stands out conspicuously as a glowing type of that American manhood classified as self made men, and he is said to his advantage as we give this dissertation covering his many virtues, that he has trained himself well along the lines of convivial and congenial ways so that he does not step upon this platform of action like one with the effrontery of a plebeian, but on the contrary sweeps onto the gridiron with colors flying and with the air of a Roman patrician. "F. X." as he is familiarly dubbed by his many friends, is attentive, to business, being the representative of Edwards, Wood & Co. here, and he can always be found in his office during business hours, but the heavens only know where he it after hours, for he has been known to have as many as half a dozen girls on the string at one time, and Oh, say, the way he handles them, just like pulling a rein over a set of fours. It is said that he does not intend to be outdone by some of the other young aspirants of Brainerd and will get a real live automobile this spring. He says that even though the roads are sandy he will find some spots where he can "speed 'er up a bit." There is always a flutter among the fair ones when "F. X." appears on the scene, and in the good old summer time when "society is all agog," one can easily distinguish this young man from ten thousand. He is kind and loving, patient and forbearing, obedient and dutiful, lovable and sympathetic, and when he starts in to make love it is with the intensity one hears sung in the old "Bedouin Love Song." His particular delight in the summer is steamboating and his hobby is to stroll into the woodlands enroute, just to gather flowers. He knows all about the culinary department of a home already, having served once or twice in his life at the head of the table where he did the "carving." He will be a lovely thing to have around, girls, so pleasant and kind, and really we can't see how you can ever resist him. Call early and avoid the rush, and when you get there be sure and buy a ticket for the after concert.

M. H. Dike, representing the Jewell Nursery Co., of Lake City, Minn., is here and will make a thorough canvass of the city. Rooms at the National hotel. 1906

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"THE MAN FROM SWEDEN."

The Elmira Star says of Knute Erickson in "A Man From Sweden": "The audience that enjoyed a fine production of 'The Man From Sweden' by Knute Erickson and company in the opera house last evening must have been forcibly reminded of 'A Poor Relation' as played by Sol Smith Russell. It was a fine production and all that was promised for it and more too. The story of the comedy drama by Chas. Newton, is a pretty one and gives an opportunity for many fine situations. Erickson never loses his character of an honest, bright, brave, diffident Swede. His dialect is never overdrawn; it is just natural. He acts to perfection one of those noble characters who are lovable at all times, which however is not difficult, because if reports are true, he is that in private life. Much praise is due Master George, 'Little Jim,' Carl's friend. He is a very bright lad and a natural actor. The supporting company was creditable. The interest of the audience never flagged and by ripples of laughter and applause they continually let it be known. It was one of those productions in which the audience was in sympathy, and when the hero did a brave act, their approval could not only be felt but heard." "The Man From Sweden" is at the Brainerd theatre tonight. The prices are only 75c for the lower floor, 50c for balcony and 25c in gallery.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Brainerd Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Brainerd endorsement. Read the statements of Brainerd citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it: R. D. Ransom, of Third Ave., East Brainerd, fireman for the Brainerd Lumber Co., says: "For as long as twelve or fourteen years I was a sufferer from kidney ailment. My back hurt me awfully. I could stoop but when I attempted to rise severe pain caught me in the loins. Often in bed I could not change my position and when morning came I had to be helped out of bed. The kidney secretions were of a very unhealthy color and were otherwise irregular. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and one box did me so much good that I took another. The treatment cured me." Sold for 50 cents, at H. P. Dunn & Co., and all druggists. NOT FINALLY DRAFTED
FURTHER DELAY OCCURS IN DIS-
PATCH OF RUSSIA'S REPLY
TO JAPAN'S NOTE.
SITUATION LITTLE IMPROVED
DELAY HELD TO INDICATE THAT
CZAR IS ANXIOUS TO SATIS-FY ISLAND EMPIRE.

Paris, Feb. 1.—Another delay has occurred in framing and forwarding
the Russian answer to the latest Japanese note, and this will result in further averting the culmination of the crisis until the middle or the latter part of this week.
Latest official advices received here
from St. Petersburg, although somewhat negative, gave definite details of
the status of the note and the programme it was intended to follow.
Count Lamsdorff, the Russian foreign minister, had expected that the exchanges going on would have permitted the final drafting of the answer so that it could have been presented to the czar Saturday for his approval,
but the expectation was not realized,
and, as a matter of fact, the answer
has not yet been finally drafted. It was therefore determined to defer its submission to the czar until next Tuesday or Wednesday. Efforts are still being made to so shape this answer as to prevent a rupture.
This new delay is interpreted as
slightly improving the situation, as it
indicates that Russia is making extreme efforts to bring the answer
within limits acceptable to Japan.

UNKNOWN TO JAPAN.
Nature of Russia's Reply Not Yet
Given Out.

London, Feb. 1.—Baron Hayashi,
the Japanese minister to Great Britain, says that his government did not know what Russia's answer would be,
and that it was, therefore, impossible
to say whether war was probable or not.

A dispatch received here from Tien-
tsin says Russia is purchasing large quantities of Kaiping coal for immediate delivery at Port Arthur, where
the stocks of coal are believed to be running low.

The correspondent of the Daily Mail
at Chefoo cables he has learned that
the Japanese naval reserves were mobilized last week, and that the
First army reserve was partly mobilized
with great secrecy, the troops arriving at their destinations disguised
as coolies. Over 100 transports have been requisitioned, the correspondent
continues, and twenty-eight and thirty-
eight warships are lying at Saseho.
Forty transports filled with the Kuma-
nato division are lying in Takeshiki
harbor at Tsushima ready for invasion. The destination of these latter vessels is believed to be Chung Yu,
whence the isolation of Korea could
be easily effected.

Under date of Jan. 26 a correspondent of the Daily Express at Kobe sends via Shanghai a statement
that the Japanese fleet sailed from Saseho on Saturday, Jan. 23, for Masampho, Korea, and says that his dispatch was refused transmission
over the customary route by the censor.

SIX MORE ARRESTS MADE.
Milwaukee Men Accused of Bribery
and Fraud.

Milwaukee, Feb. 1.—Six more arrests were made Sunday on indictments returned by the grand jury
Saturday night, as follows:

Ex-Alderman Charles Cooke, charged
with bribery; Henry G. Razall, stationery dealer, offering a bribe; Supervisor Julius Feig, obtaining county orders under false pretenses (three indictments); Ex-Alderman Rudolph
bribery; Fred Heiden, Jr., obtaining county orders under false pretenses;
Alderman Adolph C. Weisenborn,
bribery.

Capitulations were issued for the arrest
of others as follows:

Charles Esau, charged with per-
jury; Albert G. Meixner, coal dealer,
securing county orders under false
pretenses (five indictments); Supervisor Albert C. Bide, securing county orders under false pretenses (two indictments).

The grand jury has returned a total
of over fifty indictments.

COLORADO FLYER WRECKED.
One Man Killed and Thirteen Other
People Injured.

Kansas City, Feb. 1.—The Colorado
flyer on the Missouri Pacific that left Denver Saturday afternoon for Kansas City was derailed near Miller,
Kan. Sunday while running at the rate of forty miles an hour. The engine and rear car, a Pullman, alone remained upright on the track. The baggage car, smoker and a chair car
were thrown into the ditch and terribly shattered. W. L. Brown of Parsons, Kan., was killed and thirteen
other persons were injured, one seriously.

The wreck was caused by the snap-
ping of a rail, due to the intense cold.
Physicians reached the scene immediately and a relief train was hurried
from Ossawatimie.

Arnold Comtesse Suicides.

SHORT LARGE AMOUNT.
Cincinnati Bank Cashier Dying as a Result of Financial Loss.

Cincinnati, Feb. 1.—The report of the experts who have completed their examination of the books of the Franklin bank of this city shows Ex-
Cashier Henry Burkhold to have been $241,000 short. Burkhold was superceded as cashier several months ago
and has been so prostrated by his
financial collapse that he is not expected to recover. John J. Kilgour,
president of the Franklin bank, says
the bank and the creditors will not
lose a cent, as Burkhold has given President Kilgour power of attorney
to sell securities and settle up affairs.

THREE MEN WOUNDED.
Shooting Results From Quarrel Over
Payment for Drinks.

St. Louis, Feb. 1.—Two city employees and a saloonkeeper were shot
Sunday in a saloon during a quarrel
over the payment for drinks. City
Street Inspector James Gallagher was shot in the abdomen and is believed to be fatally wounded. Clem Schen-boof, a workhouse guard, was shot in
the abdomen and saloonkeeper
George Maloney was shot through the jaw. Joseph Cunnell, a meter inspector, who witnessed the affray, and Schenboof are under arrest and the other two are in the city hospital.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 1.—Crazed over
the unsolvable character of the murder of the two Peterson children,
which occurred here over two years
ago, Gordon Bowdy, detective, who
has been working on the case, committed suicide by shooting himself
through the head.

Jimenez Revolution Crushed.
Washington, Feb. 1.—According to

PANAMA CANAL QUESTION.
Senators Will Continue to Discuss It
for Some Time.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The senate
this week will continue to discuss the Panama question. Speeches will be made on Monday or Tuesday by Senator Fairbanks (Rep.) and Senators Clark (Ark.) and Clay (Democrat),
all in support of the treaty. There
also will be other speeches, but a temporary cessation may be expected later in the week, as there is a disposition on the part of many Democratic senators to postpone further
discussion of the question until responses to the resolutions of inquiry
shall be received from the executive.
The Democrats, however, have given
assurance to the Republican leaders
that they will not seek delay merely
for the purpose of postponing a vote
on the treaty, which they will permit
as soon as legitimate debate shall be exhausted.

If more can be accomplished by
closing the doors, executive sessions
will be ordered on the treaty. It is now certain the solid vote of the Republican side of the chamber in favor
of the treaty will be augmented by
many Democratic votes.
The urgent deficiency appropriation
bill will be reported during the week
and may receive attention, but the anal question will be kept to the front as much as possible, even to the exclusion of appropriation bills.

AT FIRST OPPORTUNITY.
Diplomatic Appropriation Bill Will Be Called Up for Passage.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The house
this week will pass the diplomatic
and consular appropriation bill, which
was reported from the committee on foreign affairs last week. Mr. Hitt,
chairman of the committee, will call
it up at the first favorable opportunity.

District of Columbia business is the
special order for today, private claim
bills for Tuesday and pension legislation for Friday.

Consideration of the diplomatic
bill will afford opportunity for a
further wide range of discussion of
such topics as members may desire
to introduce.

The bill providing for the ratification of a treaty with the Sioux tribe
of Indians on the Rosebud reservation,
which reached the point of third reading Saturday, is pending and its consideration is a special continuing order so long as it does not interfere
with the appropriation bills or private calendar business. A number of bills
of minor importance on the calendar
may be passed.

The Venezuelan Supreme Court Ends
Lengthy Litigation.

Caracas, Feb. 1.—The federal high
court sitting in full session with ten
judges on the bench has finally handled down a decision in the long drawn out asphalt case. The court gives as
its unanimous judgment the opinion
that the claims of Messrs. Warner
and Quinlan of Syracuse, N. Y., to possession of the Felicidad asphalt
mine, a portion of the asphalt lake in
the state of Bermudez, claimed also
by the New York and Bermudez Asphalt company, who hold a concession to work the lake, is null and void.
The Felicidad mine was bought in 1898 by Messrs. Warner and Quinlan.
The court bases its opinion on the
argument that while the concession
of the Bermudez company was valid
no claim to the Felicidad mine could
be granted. The debates revealed the fact that Messrs. Warner and Quinlan
had bought the Felicidad mine without receiving proper title from the vendors.

GREATHOUSE FOUND GUILTY.
Sentenced to Thirty Years in Prison
For Murder.

Edwardsville, Ill., Feb. 1.—After being out twenty-four hours the jury in
the case of Frank Greathouse, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Laura Bailey of East Alton, and for assault
on her eighteen-year-old daughter,
Eliza, returned a verdict of murder
Sunday night and fixed the punishment at thirty years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Bailey and her daughter
were found lying unconscious in the road last June. The mother died but the girl revived and accused Great-
house of having been their assailant.

TEAMSTER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Robs His Children's Bank to Buy the Fatal Drug.

St. Paul, Feb. 1.—Thomas Welch, a
teamster, ended his life last night by
taking strychnine, which his seven-
year-old daughter and a neighbor's
child had purchased at his order with
money he had taken from his little children's saving bank. Welch had apparently planned the deed, but no
reason is assigned by his family or neighbors for ending his life.

Station Agent Fatally Shot.

Joplin, Mo., Feb. 1.—In an exchange
of shots with two masked men who
had rifled the depot safe of $100
William H. Broadstreet, station agent
on the Frisco system at Granby, near
here, was fatally wounded. The men escaped. Bloodhounds have been sent to the scene from Joplin.

Iowa Man Commits Suicide.

Albuquerque, N. M., Feb. 1.—W. A.
Blivens of Sioux City, Ia., who arrived
here several days ago en route to California, committed suicide here by leaping in front of a switch engine.
He was decapitated. It is believed that Blivens had suddenly become insane.

Coachman Not Guilty.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—The jury that has been trying James Tilberry, the English coachman who was charged with attempting to blackmail Mrs. Hollis
M. Thurston, a prominent West Side
woman, returned a verdict of not guilty
late Saturday night.

Peter Kohas Arrested.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 1.—Peter

THE ISLE OF NOBLES.

A Famous Historic Site, the Cradle
of Saxon Liberty.

The Isle of Athelney, or the "Isle of
nobles," as the name signifies, is one
of the most famous of historic sites.
A thousand years ago it was a low islet
covered with willows and alders and
surrounded by fens and overflowing
marshes, altogether inaccessible except
by boats. There King Alfred sought refuge with a swineherd, and there he
lay concealed from the invading Danes
for the space of a whole year. The resort of his chieftains to this place
caused it to be known as the "Isle of nobles," which may be regarded as the
cradle and stronghold of Saxon liberty.
After Alfred regained the possession
of his throne he erected a Benedictine
abbey on this spot and "endowed it
with all the lands in the Isle of Athel-
ney." The monastery has entirely disappeared, but its site is marked by a
stone pillar erected in 1801 by the owner of Athelney. The pillar bears this inscription: "King Alfred the Great in
the year of our Lord 879, having been defeated by the Danes, fled for refuge
to the forest of Athelney, where he lay
concealed from his enemies for the spell
of a whole year. He soon after regained possession of his throne, and in
grateful remembrance of the protection
he had received under the favor of
heaven he erected a monastery on this
spot and endowed it with all the lands
contained in the Isle of Athelney. To perpetuate the memory of so remarkable an incident in the life of that illustrious prince this edifice was founded by John Slade, Esq., of Maunself, the proprietor of Athelney, A. D. 1801."—

The Value of Exercise.

The brain that never calls upon itself
for work must become dull and stupid,
and it is the same way with the muscles of the body. They are filled with blood vessels that should be up and
going. The blood has several purposes,
and one is to carry away the waste
fluids of the body. The lungs are a sort of refinery, and the blood is a distilling agent. If the blood becomes thick and unhealthy and sluggish the
body does not keep its youthful state.
Eyes grow dull, lips lose their redness,
and the complexion is sallow and un-
lovely. It is an easy and simple matter to make exercise a habit.

THE MAN WITH THE ADZ.

Wonderful Accuracy of His Aim at
the Butcher's Block.

Outside a butcher shop twenty or
thirty persons stood watching a man
at work with an adz. He stood on a large wooden block, such as meat is chopped on, which he had taken from
its legs and placed on the curb, sloping
toward the street. The surface of the block had become scarred and rough-
ened from use. With clean, accurate
strokes of the adz the man soon made
it as smooth as a mahogany table. It
was the wonderful accuracy of his aim
that made passersby stop to look at
him. He paid no attention to them. A single false blow would have ruined
the block. When the job was done, the
man helped the butcher mount the
block, collected $5 and went off to
keep another appointment.

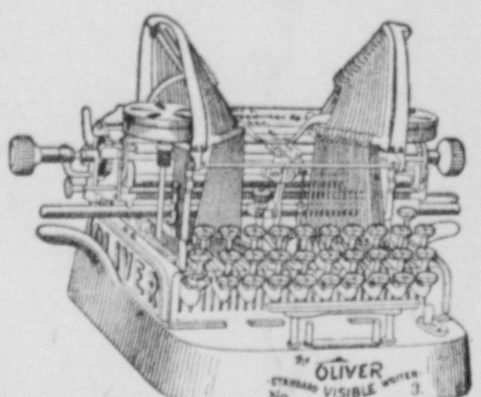

"It has taken me twenty-three years
to learn to chop like that," he said to
a reporter. "My charge is from $5 to $10, according to the size of the block.
A block requires evening off in that way every three or four years. I have customers now that I had when I first
began business, twenty-five years ago.
In all that time I have spoiled only two blocks, and they were during the two years of my apprenticeship. The butchers can get their chopping blocks put
in condition by sending them to the sawmill. But it is more expensive, and
they can't spare them so long from the shops. There is enough work of this kind in New York to keep myself and
half a dozen others busy."—New York

NOT FINALLY DRAFTED
PATCH OF RUSSIA'S REPLY
TO JAPAN'S NOTE.
CZAR IS ANXIOUS TO SATIS-
FY ISLAND EMPIRE.

Paris, Feb. 1.—Another delay has occurred in framing and forwarding the Russian answer to the latest Japanese note, and this will result in further averting the culmination of the crisis until the middle or the later
part of this week.
Latest official advices received here
from St. Petersburg, although some-
what negative, gave definite details of
the status of the note and the pro-
Count Lamsdorff, the Russian foreign
minister, had expected that the ex-
changes going on would have permitted the final drafting of the answer so that it could have been presented to the czar Saturday for his approval, but the expectation was not realized, and as a matter of fact, the answer has not yet been finally drafted. It was therefore determined to defer its
submission to the czar until next Tuesday or Wednesday. Efforts are still being made to so shape this answer as to prevent a rupture.
This new delay is interpreted as
slightly improving the situation, as it
indicates that Russia is making extreme efforts to bring the answer

Nature of Russia's Reply Not Yet
Given Out.

London, Feb. 1.—Baron Hayashi,
the Japanese minister to Great Britain, says that his government did not
know what Russia's answer would be,
and that it was, therefore, impossible
to say whether war was probable or not.

A dispatch received here from Tien-
tsin says Russia is purchasing large
quantities of Kaiping coal for immediate delivery at Port Arthur, where
the stocks of coal are believed to be
running low.

The correspondent of the Daily Mail
at Chefoo cables he has learned that
the Japanese naval reserves were
mobilized last week, and that the
First Army reserve was partly mobilized
with great secrecy, the troops arriving at their destinations disguised
as coolies. Over 100 transports have
been requisitioned, the correspondent
continues, and twenty-eight and thirty-
eight warships are lying at Saseho.
Forty transports filled with the Kuma-
nato division are lying in Takeshiki
harbor at Tsushima ready for invasion. The destination of these latter
vessels is believed to be Chung Yu,
whence the isolation of Korea could
be easily effected.

Under date of Jan. 26 a correspondent of the Daily Express at Kobe sends via Shanghai a statement
that the Japanese fleet sailed from Saseho on Saturday, Jan. 23, for Masampo, Korea, and says that his
dispatch was refused transmission
over the customary route by the censor.

SIX MORE ARRESTS MADE.
Milwaukee Men Accused of Bribery
and Fraud.

Milwaukee, Feb. 1.—Six more arrests were made Sunday on indicements returned by the grand jury
Saturday night, as follows:

Ex-Alderman Charles Cooke, charged
with bribery; Henry G. Razall, stationery dealer, offering a bribe; Supervisor Julius Feigo, obtaining county
orders under false pretenses (three
bribery; Fred Holden, Jr., obtaining
county orders under false pretenses;
Alderman Adolph C. Weisenborn,
bribery.

Capitulations were issued for the arrest
of others as follows:
Charles Esau, charged with per-
jury; Albert G. Meixner, coaldealer,
securing county orders under false
pretenses (five indictments); Supervisor Albert C. Bade, securing county orders under false pretenses (two indictments).
The grand jury has returned a total
of over fifty indictments.

COLORADO FLYER WRECKED.
One Man Killed and Thirteen Other
People Injured.

Kansas City, Feb. 1.—The Colorado
flyer on the Missouri Pacific that left Denver Saturday afternoon for Kansas City was derailed near Miller,
Kan. Sunday while running at the rate of forty miles an hour. The engine and rear car, a Pullman, alone remained upright on the track. The
baggage car, smoker and a chair car
were thrown into the ditch and terribly shattered. W. L. Brown of Par-
sons, Kan. was killed and thirteen
other persons were injured, one seriously.

The wreck was caused by the snap-
ping of a rail, due to the intense cold.
Physicians reached the scene immediately and a relief train was hurried
from Ossawatimie.

Arnold Comtesse Suicides.
Dijon, France, Feb. 1.—Arnold Comtesse, son of the president of Switzerland, committed suicide here last Thursday by shooting, after calling on a woman and finding her not at home. He had been suffering from cerebral derangement resulting from malaria fever.

Children Burned to Death.
Point Pleasant, W. Va., Feb. 1.—A dwelling occupied by two families was burned Sunday. A girl aged fifteen and a boy of nine, children of Frank Peed, were burned to death.

SHORT LARGE AMOUNT.

Cincinnati Bank Cashier Lying as a Result of Financial Loss.

Cincinnati, Feb. 1.—The report of the examination of the books of the Franklin bank of this city shows Ex-
Cashier Henry Burkhold to have been $241,000 short. Burkhold was super-
ceded as cashier several months ago
and has been so prostrated by his
financial collapse that he is not expected to recover. John J. Kilgour,
president of the Franklin bank, says
the bank and the creditors will not
lose a cent, as Burkhold has given
President Kilgour power of attorney
to sell securities and settle up affairs.

THREE MEN WOUNDED.

Shooting Results From Quarrel Over
Payment for Drinks.

St. Louis, Feb. 1.—Two city employees and a saloonkeeper were shot
Sunday in a saloon during a quarrel
Street Inspector James Gallagher was
shot in the abdomen and is believed to be fatally wounded. Clem Scher-boof, a workhouse guard, was shot in
the abdomen and saloonkeeper
George Maloney was shot through the jaw. Joseph Councell, a meter inspector, who witnessed the affray, and Scherboof are under arrest and the

Detective Suicides While Insane.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 1.—Crazed over
the unsolvable character of the mur-
der of the two Peterson children,
which occurred here over two years
ago, Gordon Bowdy, detective, who
has been working on the case, committed suicide by shooting himself
through the head.

Jimenez Revolution Crushed.

Washington, Feb. 1.—According to information received at the state department all the ports of San Domingo are now in the possession of the Morales provisional government, which succeeded the government of General Wos y Gil. The Jimenez revolution seems to have been stamped out.

for Some Time.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The senate
this week will continue to discuss the Panama question. Speeches will be made on Monday or Tuesday by Senator Fairbanks (Rep.) and Senators Clark (Ark.) and Clay (Democrats)
all in support of the treaty. There
also will be other speeches, but a
temporary cessation may be expected later in the week, as there is a
disposition on the part of many Democratic senators to postpone further
discussion of the question until responses to the resolutions of inquiry
shall be received from the executive.
The Democrats, however, have given
assurance to the Republican leaders
that they will not seek delay merely
for the purpose of postponing a vote
on the treaty, which they will permit
as soon as legitimate debate shall be exhausted.

If more can be accomplished by
closing the doors, executive sessions
will be ordered on the treaty. It is now certain the solid vote of the Republican side of the chamber in favor
of the treaty will be augmented by
many Democratic votes.
The urgent deficiency appropriation
bill will be reported during the week
and may receive attention, but the canal question will be kept to the front as much as possible, even to the
exclusion of appropriation bills.

Called Up for Passage.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The house
this week will pass the diplomatic
and consular appropriation bill, which
was reported from the committee on
foreign affairs last week. Mr. Hitt,
chairman of the committee, will call
it up at the first favorable opportunity.

District of Columbia business is the
special order for today, private claim
bills for Tuesday and pension legislation for Friday.

Consideration of the diplomatic
bill will afford opportunity for a
further wide range of discussion of
such topics as members may desire
to introduce.

The bill providing for the ratifica-
tion of a treaty with the Sioux tribe
of Indians on the Rosebud reservation,
which reached the point of third reading Saturday, is pending and its consideration is a special continuing order so long as it does not interfere
with the appropriation bills or private
calendar business. A number of bills
of minor importance on the calendar
may be passed.

The Venezuelan Supreme Court Ends
Lengthy Litigation.

Caracas, Feb. 1.—The federal high
court sitting in full session with ten
judges on the bench has finally handed down a decision in the long drawn
out asphalt case. The court gives as
its unanimous judgment the opinion
that the claims of Messrs. Warner
and Quinlan of Syracuse, N. Y., to
possession of the Felicidad asphalt
mine, a portion of the asphalt lake in
the state of Bermudez, claimed also
by the New York and Bermudez Asphalt company, who hold a conces-
sion to work the lake, is null and void.

The Felicidad mine was bought in 1898 by Messrs. Warner and Quinlan.
The court bases its opinion on the
argument that while the concession
of the Bermudez company was valid
no claim to the Felicidad mine could
be granted. The debates revealed the fact that Messrs. Warner and Quinlan
had bought the Felicidad mine without receiving proper title from the
vendors.

GREATHOUSE FOUND GUILTY.

Sentenced to Thirty Years in Prison
For Murder.

Edwardsville, Ill., Feb. 1.—After being out twenty-four hours the jury in
the case of Frank Greathouse, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Laura
Bailey of East Alton, and for assault
on her eighteen-year-old daughter,
Eliza, returned a verdict of murder
Sunday night and fixed the punishment at thirty years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Bailey and her daughter
were found lying unconscious in the road last June. The mother died but the girl revived and accused Greath-
house of having been their assailant.

TEAMSTER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Rebs His Children's Bank to Buy the Fatal Drug.

St. Paul, Feb. 1.—Thomas Welch, a
teamster, ended his life last night by
taking strychnine, which his seven-
year-old daughter and a neighbor's
child had purchased at his order with
money he had taken from his little
children's saving bank. Welch had
apparently planned the deed, but no
reason is assigned by his family or
neighbors for ending his life.

Station Agent Fatally Shot.

Joplin Mo., Feb. 1.—In an exchange
of shots with two masked men who
William H. Broadstreet, station agent
on the Frisco system at Granby, near
here, was fatally wounded. The men
escaped. Bloodhounds have been sent
to the scene from Joplin.

Iowa Man Commits Suicide.

Albuquerque, N. M., Feb. 1.—W. A.
Blivens of Sioux City, Ia., who arrived
here several days ago en route to California, committed suicide here by hanging in front of a switch engine.
He was decapitated. It is believed that Blivens had suddenly become insane.

Coachman Not Guilty.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—The jury that has been trying James Tilbery, the English coachman who was charged with attempting to blackmail Mrs. Hollis
M. Thurston, a prominent West side
woman, returned a verdict of not guilty
late Saturday night.

Peter Kohas Arrested.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 1.—Peter
Kohas, alias Pedro Calderon, alias Jose Trupillo, was arrested here Sunday by the United States authorities for obtaining transportation for Indian boys to the Haskell school and selling it to Mexicans.

THE ISLE OF NOBLES.

A Famous Historic Site, the Cradle
of Saxon Liberty.

The Isle of Athelney, or the "Isle of
nobles," as the name signifies, is one
of the most famous of historic sites.
A thousand years ago it was a low islet
covered with willows and alders and
surrounded by fens and overlying
marshes, altogether inaccessible except
by boats. There King Alfred sought
refuge with a swineherd, and there he
lay concealed from the invading Danes
for the space of a whole year. The resort of his chieftains to this place
caused it to be known as the "Isle of
nobles," which may be regarded as the
cradle and stronghold of Saxon liberty.
After Alfred regained the possession
of his throne he erected a Benedictine
abbey on this spot and "endowed it
with all the lands in the isle of Athel-
ney." The monastery has entirely disappeared, but its site is marked by a
stone pillar erected in 1801 by the owner of Athelney. The pillar bears this inscription: "King Alfred the Great in
the year of our Lord 879, having been
defeated by the Danes, fled for refuge
to the forest of Athelney, where he lay
concealed from his enemies for the spell
of a whole year. He soon after regain-
ed possession of his throne, and in
grateful remembrance of the protection
he had received under the favor of
heaven he erected a monastery on this
spot and endowed it with all the lands
contained in the isle of Athelney. To perpetuate the memory of so remarkable an incident in the life of that illustrious prince this edifice was founded by John Slade, Esq., of Munsell, the proprietor of Athelney, A. D. 1801."—

The Value of Exercise.

The brain that never calls upon itself
for work must become dull and stupid,
and it is the same way with the muscles of the body. They are filled with blood vessels that should be up and
going. The blood has several purposes,
and one is to carry away the waste
fluids of the body. The lungs are a sort of refinery, and the blood is a distilling agent. If the blood becomes
thick and unhealthy and sluggish the
body does not keep its youthful state.
Eyes grow dull, lips lose their redness,
and the complexion is sallow and un-
lovely. It is an easy and simple matter to make exercise a habit.

Wonderful Accuracy of His Aim at
the Butcher's Block.

Outside a butcher shop twenty or
thirty persons stood watching a man
at work with an adz. He stood on a large wooden block, such as meat is
chopped on, which he had taken from
its legs and placed on the curb, sloping
toward the street. The surface of the
block had become scarred and rough-
ened from use. With clean, accurate
strokes of the adz the man soon made
it as smooth as a mahogany table. It
was the wonderful accuracy of his aim
that made passersby stop to look at
him. He paid no attention to them. A
single false blow would have ruined
the block. When the job was done, the
man helped the butcher mount the
block, collected $5 and went off to
keep another appointment.

It has taken me twenty-three years
to learn to chop like that," he said to
$10, according to the size of the block.
A block requires evening off in that
way every three or four years. I have
customers now that I had when I first
began business, twenty-five years ago.
In all that time I have spoiled only two
blocks, and they were during the two years of my apprenticeship. The butchers can get their chopping blocks put
in condition by sending them to the
they can't spare them so long from the
shops. There is enough work of this
kind in New York to keep myself and
half a dozen others busy."—New York
